NARRATIVE:

Megan Fernandez has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21. Her convictions include inflicting corporal injury on spouse, trespassing in the home of another, vehicle theft, hit and run with property damage and failing to report. She has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 2 year term for inflicting corporal injury on spouse. Fernandez was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on September 1, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2014 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Fernandez qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for inflicting corporal injury on spouse is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
